

MAKING MAGIC:

BEAUTY

IN WORD AND IMAGE

Tell Us What Beauty Means to You

We'd like to learn more about how you experience beauty in your own life. Please complete the phrase below. More than one answer is encouraged!

The most beautiful experiences I've ever had are:

Please complete the following phrase:
As beautiful as.... ***

For example: As beautiful as a Steve Carlton slider...as beautiful as a single blade of grass vibrating in the wind...as beautiful as the first bite from a bag of greasy popcorn...as beautiful as Mama Cass singing Dream a Little Dream...as beautiful as the first cry of a newborn baby...as beautiful as a tweet from Emily Dickinson....

When you have completed this sheet, please fold and insert in the box. Selected responses will be transcribed and shared with others in the exhibit and online.

<< MORE >>

TAKE THE SHOW HOME WITH YOU!

We'd like to know what you think about this exhibition tomorrow, next week, or next month.

Call (215) 622-2009 and press 20 to continue the conversation. Your thoughts will be recorded and may become part of the exhibit experience. You can respond to any of the phrases on this sheet, or whatever inspires you!

Download a copy of this activity and view images from the exhibit at Learn with the Michener: www.learn.michenerartmuseum.org. Or feel free to take a blank copy of this worksheet home with you.

Name and email address (optional):

Please note: By calling in and recording your responses, or responding in writing above, you agree to have your comments included in the exhibit and online. Names are not required to participate.