

Say What? Gallery Activity

Find a person depicted in an artwork. Look at all the visual clues in the work including body language, setting and clothing. If this person could talk, what do you think they would say? Write it in the speech bubble below.

What about the person makes you think that they would say that?

What if this person could speak to another person in a different artwork?
What would they say to each other?